Voters To Decide 28 School Board Races Tomorrow

All Marin To Take Part In Voting For County Board Of Education

Hundreds of Marin voters will troop to the polls tomorrow to elect trustees for vacancies on the Marin County Board of Education, the Marin Junior College District board, two high school district boards and the boards of 24 elementary districts.

Voters in the entire county

3 Districts To Vote On Bond Issues

Three elementary school districts in Marin will have bond issues on tomorrow's ballot. Five others will have tax measures.

In addition, residents of four North Marin districts will ballot on a Petaluma High School bond issue.

Biggest bond issue in Marin County to be decided by the voters Tuesday is the proposed $600,000 issue in Mill Valley School District.

Larkspur District voters (including Corte Madera) will decide the fate of a $267,000 bond issue.

In Kentfield district (which includes Greenbrae), the voters are being asked to approve a $500,000 bond issue and acceptance of a $300,000 state loan.

Although no state loans are on the ballot in Mill Valley and Larkspur districts, applications for state aid authorization probably will follow later. The state's formula for aiding school construction requires that a district be bonded to

Two 'Tickets' In Bolinas School Vote

A red hot (and somewhat confusing) race developed today for tomorrow's Bolinas School District board election.

Mrs. Mildred E. Haraldsen, who withdrew as a candidate against Ben Roark for a three-year term on the board after the ballots had been sent to the printer, announced she is back in the race—but not against Roark.

Mrs. Haraldsen said she, Roark and Samuel H. Mosco will vote on the candidate for the county board, including those voters in the San Rafael High School and elementary school districts, who will cast ballots on candidates for the college board.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The complexion of the county board election changed in the last few days after an opinion by Deputy County Counsel E. Warren McGuire said that one of the three races is open to all candidates.

Previously, it was thought that Mrs. Alice Ann (Nancy) Rust of Kentfield, an incumbent member of the board, and Mrs. Ann Smart of Larkspur would compete for the vacancy in trustee Area 2. McGuire said that Lyman B. McBride of San Anselmo, at first appointed to the board and then elected as a member-at-large, now fills the trustee Area 2 spot.

He said that puts Mrs. Rust and Mrs. Smart in competition with other members of the board for the at-large position. Those who will fall into competition with Mrs. Rust and Mrs. Smart are the two not elected in trustee Areas 1 and 5.

The other candidates in the county board election are: Area 1 (1 vacancy) Adele Alpers, incumbent, and Dennis Carey, Area 5 (1 vacancy) Ted V. Cole, incumbent, and Earl G. Marshall.

Three other districts present notable contests.

In the Tamalpais Union High School District, there is only one vacancy. Six persons are trying to get the spot, including the incumbent. In addition, one candidate, Harry Leff Jr., is also a candidate for the Marin Junior College District board.

The College of Marin board has only two vacancies, and six persons are after them.

In the Bolinas district, a contest developed as Mrs. Louise L. Pepper announced she would be write-in candidate for the post being vacated by Chairman Gene V. McDaniel. She will be in opposition for the three-year term also sought by Ben Roark Jr.

This is the lineup of trustees by district:

Jobs On Two School Boards Incompatible, Says Jordan

A man may not serve on the county board of education and on a district school board at the same time, the county counsel held today.

The opinion may affect Earl G. Marshall, who is a member of the Novato Unified School District board and candidate against Ted V. Cole for member of the county board from Trustee Area 5.

Marshall asked the opinion. But he said today he does not agree with it, and has no intention of dropping out of the county board race.

If Marshall is elected, and the opinion is upheld, he could choose to drop out of the No-

Native Sons Open Marin Convention

The 82nd Grand Parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West opened in San Rafael today after an afternoon and evening of gathering in the festive spirit.

San Rafael's pre-Spanish history as a "rest, recovery and recuperation center for the Indians of the Bay Area" was described by Mayor John F. McInnis as he welcomed the Native Sons to San Rafael this morning.

Greetings were extended also by Walter R. Castro, chairman of the Marin County Board of Supervisors; Charles J. Chiesa, San Rafael chief of police, and by Dan E. Andersen, San Rafael city manager.

Highlight of yesterday's pre-convention activities was a parade that heralded the four-day event.

About 2,000 persons gathered along San Rafael's Fourth street for the hour-long parade. It was a cool and windy evening as various Native Sons and Native Daughters paraded either walked or rode in a parade punctuated with sirens and simulated gunfire.

At convention headquarters at Bermuda Palms, chairman D. Frank Monte said he believed the event would draw the largest number of delegates in the history of the organization's annual gatherings. Together with wives and families, Monte estimated total convention attendance at around 700.

Among dignitaries expected to be drawn to the convention is Joseph R. Knowland, dean of the Native Sons' past grand presidents. Knowland, grand president in 1910, is publisher of the Oakland Tribune. Also expected to attend is Eugene Biscailuz, former sheriff of Los Angeles County. He has been a Native Son more than half a century.

At a session this morning the convention passed a resolution commending and honoring Adolph Eberhardt, 92-year-old Native Son from Mill Valley, who attended the only other convention held in San Rafael, See NSGW, page 3

3,000 Take Part In Holy Ghost Festival

Sausalito's annual Holy Ghost festival, held yesterday at the IDESST Hall, was termed by Manuel G. Brazil, IDESST president, "one of the largest ever held."

He said more than 3,000 meals were served following the colorful parade which started in the morning from the lodge hall and wended its way to the Star of the Sea Church, where mass was said by Rev. Henry O'Flynn, pastor.

After the ceremony, the parade went through town and returned to the hall where the feasting commenced. There were 19 marching units in the parade, including the Petaluma Municipal Band.

The traditional big queen was Yvonne Simas of Sausalito. Elsie Vivien Clyburn of Tiburon was little queen. Irene Silveira of Bolinas was the modern queen Isabel.

The event commemorates the end of a 13th century famine in Portugal.

Plane Crash Kills 2 Mill Valley Men

Craft Falls On E. Bay Freeway

A light plane crashed on an Alameda County freeway yesterday to snuff out the lives of a Mill Valley carpenter and the proprietor of a Mill Valley service station.

Killed in the crash on Highway 50 about three miles east of Castro Valley were Jule W. Schoenig Jr., 50, of 335 Molino avenue, Mill Valley, longtime carpenter at San Rafael High School, and Julius Clausen, 57, of 2649 Polk street, San Francisco, partner with Robert Lattimer in the Shell service station at 458 Miller avenue, Mill Valley.

They were on their way to Columbia in the Mother Lode country, on an aerial weekend outing, when the little Cessna plane ran into squalls near Oakland. Said a Navy helicopter pilot who saw the crash: "They didn't have a chance."

The Cessna, which belonged to Clausen and the Pacer Flying Club, took off from San Carlos Airport. Minutes later, it went into a spin over the crowded freeway, near the intersection with Eden Canyon road.

It struck the highway, gouging up part of the surface of the westbound lanes, bursting into bits and catching fire.

Both occupants were killed instantly. All three westbound lanes of the freeway

Inmate Walks Away From Prison Dairy

A statewide search was intensified today for a San Quentin convict who walked away from the prison dairy farm Saturday night.

Prison officials said the wanted man is Robert L. Earhart, 34, a parole violator.

They said he was missed at bed check at the farm, located outside the main prison wall, west of the main buildings near the bay. Twenty minutes earlier, he was there.

Earhart is 5 feet 9 inches, has hazel eyes, brown hair, a ruddy complexion and is of medium build. He probably was wearing a prison blue denim uniform when he fled. An all-points bulletin has been issued for his apprehension. The prison said Earhart is not considered dangerous. He first entered San Quentin from Los Angeles County in 1949, convicted of forgery. He was released in 1953, and was sent back as a parole violator in 1956.

A San Francisco woman was killed and three persons from Marinwood, including a 17-month-old baby, were severely injured in a two-car collision yesterday in the Funston Tunnel in San Francisco.

Mrs. Elley Gilmeister, 47, of 611 Tavaval street, San Francisco, died of multiple injuries at 6 a.m. at Kaiser Hospital in San Francisco.

Injured were her daughter, Mrs. Ingrid Iacovetto, 24, of 239 Johnstone drive, Marinwood; her granddaughter, Roxanne, 17 months, and her son-in-law, Victor G. Iacovetto, 28, an electrical worker at the Presidio.

Mrs. Gilmeister and the others were passengers in a 1958 Volkswagen being driven by Iacovetto.

The car collided head-on at 1:32 a.m. with one driven by William C. Hubenette, 18, of San Francisco.

A passenger in the Hubenette car, Jill M. Hosmer, 17, of San Francisco, also was injured.

Miss Hosmer and all the persons in the Iacovetto auto were taken to Kaiser Hospital. Hubenette was taken to St. Mary's Hospital. The California Highway Patrol said his injuries were minor.

Kaiser Hospital today reported Mrs. Iacovetto, the baby Roxanne and Miss Hosmer were in only fair condition. Mrs. Iacovetto suffered head injuries; Roxanne, head injuries and a leg fracture, and Miss Hosmer, fracture of the right leg and extensive abrasions. Victor Iacovetto suffered a fracture of the collarbone and was reported in good condition.

The CHP said Hubenette's car was traveling fast in the southbound lane, swerved to miss another southbound vehicle, hit the west wall of the tunnel, skidded broadside across the roadway and hit the east wall, then bounced into Iacovetto's northbound vehicle.

$29,000 Forgery Admitted By Kiewert

Charles L. Kiewert, Corte Madera real estate man, admitted today he forged endorsements on two checks for a total of $29,000 in 1957 and 1958 while working for the Lakeside Development Co.

Kiewert appeared with his attorney John L. Rockwell before Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court and pleaded guilty to two counts of forgery. Maximum penalty for forgery is one to 14 years in state prison.

Judge Keating continued the case until June 22 for a report from the probation office and for sentencing. While awaiting judgment, Kiewert is free on $1,000 bail.

Inspector Donald Midyett of the district attorney's office, who rounded up the records to bring the complaint against Kiewert, said Kiewert forged the names of partners who ran the Lakeside Development Co. One check was for $14,535, and the other for $14,830. They represented escrow money on sale of real estate.

in a position of approving both sides of the contract.

Also, appeals from local boards' rejections of inter-district agreements covering non-resident students are taken to the county board. Thus a county board member might be sitting in judgment on an appeal from his own decision, were he also a district board member.

In addition, the county board, with the county superintendent, appoints persons to fill vacancies on local boards. This might create another conflict, held Jordan.

The ruling would not apply to holding positions on two different district school boards, since the conflicts cited would not occur in that case. Harry Leff Jr. is a candidate in tomorrow's election for both Marin Junior College District and Tamalpais High School District boards. Jordan said he had not been asked for an opinion on whether those two offices would be incompatible, but offhand he did not think they would be.

voys, who was defeated last week for a new term on the Bolinas Public Utility District board, are running as a ticket against Mrs. Louise L. Pepper (herself a write-in), Arthur Carpenter and Mrs. Joyce Huntley.

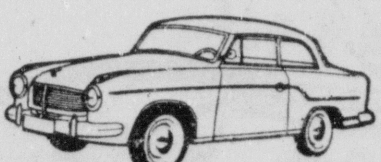

The ballot carries Roark's name for a full three-year term, Carpenter's for a term expiring next year, and Mrs. Huntley's for a term expiring in 1961.

It also carries Mrs. Haraldsen's name for the three-year term, but she is not seeking that. Instead, she is running on a "ticket" with Roark and another write-in, Moscovoy.

Mrs. Pepper is running as a write-in against Roark.

Mrs. Haraldsen is running as a write-in against Mrs. Huntley, for the term vacated by Edward E. Davis, who moved out of the district.

Moscovoy is running as write-in against Carpenter, for the remainder of the term which Carpenter is now serving by appointment. Carpenter was appointed after James Dougan resigned from the board. The law provides that an appointed school board member must stand for election at the next school board election to continue in office.

were blocked by the wreckage for two hours. By fortunate chance, none of the cars on the road was struck by the flying pieces of the plane.

Lt. Tom Cowell was watching from his Navy helicopter. He said the plane reversed course once to avoid the squall, then made a second sharp turn. Then a wing dipped and it went into a spin, and "they never had a chance."

Clausen had been flying for more than 15 years. Schoenig became interested in flying two years ago and had often gone on aerial trips with Clausen.

Yesterday at 10:15 a.m., Clausen picked up his friend at his Mill Valley home for the flight to Columbia. They drove to San Carlos and boarded the plane. Minutes later, both were dead.

Schoenig is survived by his wife, Betty; two daughters, Linda, 21, and Karen, 19. Karen is now in Spangdaum, Germany, to be married there.

Clausen has been a partner with Lattimer in service station operations in San Francisco and Mill Valley for more than 30 years. He is survived by his wife, Elsie, and a married daughter residing in Berkeley.

Funeral services for Schoenig will be held at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow at the Episcopal Church of Our Saviour, Lovell and Old Mill avenues, Mill Valley. Friends may call at the Russell and Gooch chapel in Mill Valley until 10 a.m. tomorrow. Interment will be in Mt. Tamalpais Cemetery.

A special award for "Miss Congeniality" went to Judith Ann Gurley, 19, of Kentfield. Miss Gurley, a blue-eyed ash blonde, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gurley of 201 McAllister avenue, Kentfield. A sophomore at College of Marin, she is 5 feet 5½ inches, with other "vital statistics" of 34-24-35.

Fast Draw Artist Lands In Hospital

Whitney Morrow Bollier, 18-year-old service station attendant from Mill Valley, shot himself in the right knee while practicing fast draw on a hillside near Alto intersection yesterday afternoon.

He was taken to Marin General Hospital where doctors removed the .22 caliber slug. The bullet missed all major blood vessels and bones, the doctors reported. Bollier was released after treatment.

Bollier, who lives at 250 Ferndale drive, Mill Valley, was target shooting with a friend, Ted L. Benson of 101 Melrose avenue, Mill Valley. Bollier cocked the gun and tried to put it in his holster, when the gun went off.

the "constructive proposals by the United States were brought to naught by the continued refusal of the Soviet Union to fulfill its solemn obligation to join with the Western allies in bringing about the reunification of Germany and the establishment of an all-German government freely chosen by the German people."

Herter said as far as the United States, Britain and France are concerned, a final settlement with Germany "must await the establishment of a government which can act for and bind Germany as a whole."

Reunification is only possible, Gromyko said, through direct action by East and West German regimes. He declared it would be useful if the Geneva conference could agree on setting up an all-Germany agency, but said the decision must be up to the Germans themselves.

He said the West must break up its package in order to permit discussion of the parts in which Russia is interested.

Herter spoke at the end of a day marked by discord among the Western Allies over how and when to begin negotiating with Russia on the Berlin crisis.

The Allies, however, patched up their differences in midday and issued a statement saying that, while Berlin and other issues could be discussed with Russia outside their proposed package peace settlement, such issues could not actually be settled separately from the package.

The row ranged the United States and Britain against France and West Germany.

The U.S. and British delegations let it be known over the weekend that they felt the Soviet Union's adamant rejection of the Western package proposal for German reunification and a European security system necessitated negotiations on the immediately pressing question of Berlin.

French and West German officials insisted on continued firm support for the package program and a very tough line in negotiating with Gromyko.

The joint Western statement denied that the Allies had decided to break up the Western package plan.

Cuba Enacts

Agrarian Reform

HAVANA (UPI) — Premier Fidel Castro and his cabinet last night enacted a new agrarian reform law designed to get Cuban land into full production.

The measure, which Castro described as "the fundamental law of the Cuban revolution," will force the sale of idle privately-owned land to the state. This, along with idle land already in state hands, will be redistributed among Cuban peasants.

Airmen's Hearing Put Off For Day

A preliminary hearing in Petaluma Justice Court for two Hamilton Air Force Base airmen, accused of battery of a Petaluma cafe operator, has been set over until 3 p.m. tomorrow.

The hearing was originally set for 10 a.m. today.

The two, A/2c Luther C. James, 22, and A/3c Andrew Crowe, 28, both of the 78th Fighter Wing at Hamilton, entered pleas of innocent in the court of Judge Roland Webb last week. A court official today said they have been remanded to their commander at Hamilton after being kept in the Sonoma County Jail in Santa Rosa on $1,000 bail each.

James and Crowe are accused of beating Grant Miller, who told Petaluma police he met them in a bar May 10 and accompanied them on a ride to a quarry south of that city.

Mrs. Giampaoli asks for custody of the children, $350 support for herself and the children, and all community property.

Ike Chooses Gates To Succeed Quarles

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today announced his selection of Navy Secretary Thomas S. Gates Jr. to succeed the late Donald A. Quarles as deputy defense secretary.

Eisenhower will submit Gates' nomination to the Senate tomorrow.

Gates resigned earlier this year as secretary of navy, effective on May 30, to return to the investment banking business. But apparently after the death of Quarles the President and Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy persuaded him to remain in government as deputy defense secretary.

The announcement came soon after McElroy announced he had called in Adm. Arthur W. Radford, retired, as consultant during the absence of Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Twining is recuperating from a lung cancer operation.

Radford was Twining's predecessor as chairman of the joint chiefs.

Gates' resignation as Navy secretary was announced Jan. 30. William B. Franke was nominated to succeed him.

Soil District Election Set For Tomorrow

Marin voters will ballot on formation of a 295,000-acre county soil conservation district and elect a five-member board of directors tomorrow.

Eight candidates seeking board posts are Domingo Grossi Jr. of Inverness, Louis P. Albini of Valley Ford, Thomas F. Furling Jr. of Tomales, Waldo Giacomini of Point Reyes Station, Dave Leveroni Jr. of Novato, George W. Wheelwright III of Sausalito, and Camillo Morelli and William D. Barboni, who reside on Petaluma rural routes.

The proposed district would include rural Marin and exclude the urban area from Sausalito to San Rafael. Novato's downtown and subdivision districts, as well as several smaller county populated areas.

The district would aid land owners in planning conservation of grasslands and development of additional supplies of irrigation water on their own properties.

In addition, Marin land owners would be in position to receive technical assistance from the Soil Conservation Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The maximum tax that may be levied by the district under state statute is two cents per $100 of assessed valuation of land only. No assessments may be made on improvements.

In the past, Marin ranchers have borrowed technical help from soil conservation districts in Sonoma County.

FIRE SEASON BEGINS TODAY IN COUNTY AREA

Fire season was put into effect throughout Marin County's unincorporated areas today.

No open burning will be permitted under the county fire department's jurisdiction until the dangerous season is over. All incinerators and barbecues must be inspected and used only with permission from the fire department. The regulations will apply in the various fire districts but not in incorporated cities.

3 Public Hearings In Corte Madera

Three public hearings will be held by the Corte Madera Town Council tonight at a meeting starting at 8 o'clock.

The hearings will be on (1) a precise plan for the 22-acre town park, (2) rezoning to permit a Tidewater Service Station at Fifer avenue and Highway 101, and (3) rezoning to permit apartment construction on four lots in Sunnyside Terrace.

Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow is to submit a revised set of recommendations for 1959-60 salaries of town employees. The council last month decided by a 3-2 vote to grant all full-time employees a 2½ per cent increase effective July 1.

In the light of that decision, Brandow was asked to prepare new recommendations concerning salary ranges. Mayor Roger F. Morse said the percentage raises might "wipe out the necessity for some of these range increases" which the manager had suggested.

Marinwood Recreation Area Vote Indecisive

Marinwood's problem of commercial area vs. recreational area remained a problem today as county planning commissioners failed to agree on a solution.

The planners voted 3-2 in favor of a proposal by Commissioner Niels Schultz Jr., but because a two-thirds vote is necessary, the action was, in effect, no action at all.

The commission set the matter over to 9 a.m. June 1 for reconsideration. Commissioner James Cuzner, who abstained from voting today because he missed the public hearing on the matter and had not seen the record of the hearing, presumably will be ready to vote at the next meeting. If his vote is favorable, the Schultz proposal will go to the board of supervisors with planning commission approval.

However, if Cuzner joins Commissioner Margaret Azevedo and Dr. William Upton in opposing the Schultz suggestion, the matter will be deadlocked.

Sausalito Council To Mull Rezoning

An application to annex and rezone a portion of Waldo Point for construction of an apartment project will be one item on tonight's agenda for the Sausalito City Council meeting.

The meeting is being held a day early since the city hall will be in use as a polling place in tomorrow's school election.

Also on the agenda are consideration of an ordinance to provide for impounding of cars left on streets for five days, and consideration of two appointments to the recreation commission for seats now occupied by Chairman Robert C. La Fontaine and Willard A. Hall.

The problem stems from the fact that the Marinwood master plan provides for 18 acres of recreational area and five acres of commercial area (exclusive of a regional shopping center area at Highway 101), but the master plan map does not show locations for the areas.

Hoytt Enterprises, Marinwood developers, proposed that the commercial area be designated as five acres north-east of the intersection of Lucas Valley road and Miller Creek road, and spotted suggested recreation areas along Miller Creek.

Marinwood residents, represented by the Marinwood Assn., have strenuously opposed the Hoytt proposal, as has the county planning staff.

Objections center around the contention that recreational areas should be suitable for development of such facilities as a baseball field, and that ribbon areas proposed by Hoytt would be useless for such purposes. The objectors urge that the entire five-acre commercial area, plus 10 acres planned for apartments, be turned over to recreation use.

Mrs. Azevedo proposed today that one acre be trimmed from the commercial area, and two from the apartment area, for recreation. Her motion failed to receive a second.

Schultz then moved that one acre be taken from the commercial site, and a 1.8-church site nearby be turned over to recreation, with the church to be relocated.

This motion received the indecisive 3-2 vote.

"This leaves us right where we started," observed Planning Director Mary Summers. "Which is nowhere," appended Mrs. Azevedo.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market moved upward on average late this afternoon in sluggish trading. Tobaccos declined sharply. Gold shares advanced.

Volume for the day was estimated at 3,000,000 shares compared with 3,510,000 on Friday.

Gains and losses of key stocks went from fractions to about a point. Tobaccos and a few other stocks showed steeper losses.

American Tobacco and Liggett and Myers were down about three each. Reynolds Tobacco was off around two while Lorillard dropped more than a point.

The slide in tobaccos was connected with a magazine article quoting the director of the National Cancer Institute, U.S. Public Health Service, as linking lung cancer with cigarette smoking.

Gold stocks continued to rise on the advance in the price of gold in the London bullion market. McIntyre Porcupine jumped more than four. Domes Mines was up more than two and Homestake over a point.

Four Subdivisions Sought In Hub City

Tonight's San Anselmo Planning Commission agenda includes four proposed subdivisions. The commission will meet at 8 o'clock at the city hall.

Frank Cherne, San Anselmo real estate man, has submitted plans for a 19-lot subdivision at the head of Woodside drive in Woodland Park 2.

Alice and Peter Cadoux have proposed a five-lot subdivision in the Barber tract at the end of Woodland Park 2.

In addition, the planning commission will have two proposals to divide existing lots into two: a lot on Oak avenue opposite Gerlach road of Robert Cary; and one at 82 Oak Knoll avenue of Norman Swall.

Mom Kills Herself; Son A Murderer

CHICAGO (AP) — A mother, grieving over her teen-age son who is serving a life sentence in prison for murder, fatally shot herself yesterday, police said.

While her husband, Max, and the couple's two children slept, police said Margaret Fleig, 45, shot herself in the head with a pistol.

Fleig said she had been grieving since their oldest child, Robert Max, 19, was sent to prison on April 21, 1958, for the 1957 slaying of Mary Lou Wagner, 14, in a lovers' lane.

France, West Germany Oppose S.F. For Summit

GENEVA (AP) — France and West Germany are firmly opposed to San Francisco as a site for a summit conference, diplomatic sources reported today.

The Big Four leader most interested in San Francisco is said to be British Prime Minister Macmillan. President Eisenhower is prepared to go along with him, but without special enthusiasm.

Premier Nikita Khrushchev is known to be anxious for a chance to visit the United States. Some Western officials believe however, that he would like to go as Eisenhower's guest, not merely as participant in a summit conference, which would leave him little chance to go sightseeing and make a direct impact on the American public.

Soviet officials have indicated privately Russia prefers Geneva or Vienna as a summit site.

President Charles de

Gaulle of France and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer are vigorously opposed to holding the summit in the United States, informants say.

De Gaulle is reported to feel that summit talks should be held on neutral ground—and, since European problems are under discussion, preferably in Europe.

As on many other issues of the current foreign ministers conference, the West Germans are squarely lined up with the French on this.

Delegations from East and West Germany presumably would have the same adviser status at the summit meeting they have here. But Adenauer and his aides feel the presence of an East German adviser delegation in San Francisco—presumably headed by Premier Otto Grotewohl—would be a further step towards de facto foreign recognition for East Germany's Communist regime.

Red China Fires On Matsu Isle, Fears Heighten

TAIPEI, Formosa (UP) — Red China turned its guns on little Matsu Island for the first time in two years yesterday, heightening Nationalists' fears the Communists may be preparing a new crisis in the Formosa Strait.

A Nationalist officer and two soldiers were reported killed as the Reds lobbed over 444 shells at the offshore island group at the northern end of the Formosa Strait. The Nationalists said 162 Red shells hit Matsu, 112 landed on near Peikantang Island and 170 dropped into the sea.

The barrage reportedly destroyed six civilian homes on the two islands.

The nationalist Defense Minister said the Red mainland batteries were silenced after 90 minutes by effective counter-fire.

DUTCH PRESS INDIGNANT

U.S. Flying Saucer 'Quack' Has Date With Queen

THE HAGUE, Holland (UP) — George Adamski, a self-styled professor who says he has taken seven rides on flying saucers to Venus and the moon, had a date with Queen Juliana today to tell her all about it. The Dutch press was indignant.

The Catholic newspaper De Volkskrant called the 68-year-old Californian a quack and indirectly recalled the national uproar in 1956 when the Queen's friendship with faith healer Greet Hofmans was reported to have caused a rift in the royal family.

One foreign newspaper, the London Sunday Express, reported the Queen's invitation to Adamski for a private interview had again split the royal household in two.

The Express said the row had been kept in the family for 10 days before the Dutch press finally was given the green light to print the story.

It said the Queen had "consistently ignored all advice" to cancel Adamski's appointment. Adamski declined to talk to newsmen before his interview with the Queen.

He is in Europe to lecture on space travel—not as a theoretician but as a man who says he actually has made space journeys.

He says he goes frequently to Mars in flying saucers and has been around the moon as a guest aboard a space ship from Venus.

Adamski originally was scheduled to address a Dutch organization of flying saucer enthusiasts. The group invited the Queen. Instead, the Queen invited Adamski for a private interview.

In 1956, the Queen's friendship with Greet Thomas, who was said to be influencing her on affairs of state, provoked a government crisis.

THEME GIRL HAS MARINES WELL IN HAND

It seems the Second Marine Division Assn. is to have its 10th annual reunion July 17-19 at the Marines' Memorial Club in San Francisco. Naturally, such an affair must have a "theme girl." So San Francisco model Bennie Morgan was chosen

"Miss Pacific Islands." And the only way a couple of genuine Marine veterans can get in the picture is to be "congratulating" Bennie. In case you care, the two characters in the loud shirts are Frank Soldavini (left) of San Anselmo and Robert Ahrens of Kentfield.

119 Injured As Chicago Elevated Trains Collide

CHICAGO (AP) — At least 119 persons were injured, two seriously, today in a head-tail collision of two jammed rush-hour elevated trains carrying riders to downtown Chicago.

The impact telescoped a four-foot section of one Logan Square train and threw standing passengers to the floor like tenpins.

Scores were treated at the scene. Others were taken to hospitals for treatment or examination.

The collision of the two six-coach trains of all steel construction occurred when the first train stopped after leaving a station and was rammed by the second.

A passenger, Jerry Rogus, was in the rear end of the train that was hit. He said he turned his head and saw the other train approaching.

"There was a big bang and sparks were flying," he said. "All the people started running for the front of the car.

"One girl who had been standing near me started screaming for her mother, 'God help me,' she cried. Her leg was cut off near the bottom. Then there was a Japanese man. His arm was cut and he was bleeding from the mouth."

The crash occurred at 1800 Milwaukee avenue, at the highest point of the northwest elevated route and between the Damen and Western avenue stations. The El structure there is as high as a three-story building.

Passengers said the rear train had just pulled away from the Western avenue station and was traveling slowly when the collision occurred. The first coach of the second train telescoped about four feet.

Merino sheep were introduced to the U.S. in 1810 at Weathersfield, Vt.

PIED PIPER PIPES 'EM IN FOR MOUNTAIN PLAY

Some of the throng of 4,000 who attended yesterday's 42nd production of the Mountain Play are seen watching the play in Cushing Memorial Amphitheater on the slope of Mt. Tamalpais. The show was "The Pied Piper," the whimsical story of the piper of Hamelin who charmed away the city's rats — and the children with them. The Mountain Play version was directed by Dan Toth-eroh, with Dan Scarlett of Mill Valley as the Piper heading a cast of 100. (Independent-Journal photo by Jim Kean)

Hub Couple Find Treasure Medallion

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Foote of 155 Alder avenue, San Anselmo, will receive $1,000 from the San Francisco Chronicle today—their reward for discovering the newspaper's buried "treasurer" at San Francisco's Aquatic Park yesterday.
Foote, 40, is a San Francisco fireman. He and his wife Laverne shoveled sand at Aquatic Park for four hours yesterday before Foote's shovel struck the box containing the treasure medallion.
The Footes plan to use the money to pay bills, they said.

Kuchel Asks Marin Park Planning Fund

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel (R-Calif.) has asked Congress for $10,000 to permit the National Park Service to plan for the ultimate development of a national seashore recreation area at Point Reyes, Calif.

Kuchel told the Senate Appropriations Committee there is danger that the area will be put to other uses unless the government acts quickly to preserve its scenic attractions. The Point Reyes Peninsula, Kuchel said, is only about 35 miles from San Francisco and accessible by major highways. He said appropriation of planning funds would be an expression of the intention of Congress to carry out Park Service recommendations for preservation of unique sections of the Pacific Coastline.

He asked that the money be added to the House-passed Interior Department appropriation bill.

Inmate May Escape Prosecution In Knifing

Clifford Jefferson, 33-year-old convict whose life was spared by Gov. Goodwin J. Knight last summer after he knifed a fellow inmate at Folsom, may escape Marin County prosecution for a San Quentin knifing last month.

Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich said it is doubtful he can prosecute because of a lack of witnesses to the knifing. The victim of the attack, Ronald W. Lushenko, 28, has refused to testify against Jefferson. Weissich said the only evidence he has is testimony of one inmate witness.

Jefferson has been in prison since 1945, when he was convicted of burglary and second degree murder. In 1955, he was sentenced to die for knifing a fellow inmate at Folsom, under Penal Code section 4500 which makes death mandatory for a life term who commits a felonious assault.

Jefferson was on Death Row when Governor Knight commuted the sentence to life without possibility of parole last June 27. Less than a year later, he stands accused of stabbing another inmate.

"He's got everything the state can give him short of death, and he still stabs," said Weissich.

A bill eliminating the mandatory death penalty for a life term convict who commits assault is before Gov. Edmund G. Brown for signature. But even if this is approved, the new law would have little effect on the case of Jefferson. Under the new law, if the victim of assault does not die, the jury would have the option of bringing a verdict of death or of life in prison without possibility of parole for nine years.

But Jefferson is already serving without possibility of parole. The only alternative would be death.

1,090-Acre Annexation Before Council Tonight

Annexation of the 1,090-acre "Freitas Ranch" to San Rafael will be given final adoption by the city council tonight. The council meeting is set for 8 o'clock in the city hall.
Bids will be opened for reconstruction of Lootens place between Third street and Fifth avenue. Cost is estimated at $18,000.

Other items on tonight's agenda include:
Patrick J. Moran, executive secretary and air pollution control officer, will explain the functions of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District.
Resolutions will be presented to proceed with a road connection between Bret Harte Heights and Greenbrae. The 300-foot road will be financed by property owners who have formed an assessment district.

The city engineer will report on the cost of improving the proposed offstreet parking lot at Third and Cijos streets.

An ordinance establishing the freeway and construction lines of San Rafael Canal will be introduced.

A stop sign is proposed at Fifth avenue at H street, for westbound vehicles only.

Public Works Director Norris Rawles wants permission to start negotiating for land for widening of Third street from Irwin street to Marina boulevard at Harbor Estates.

Similar Writing On Checks Puts 2 Men In Jail

Edward Ames, a clerk in the Brice Brothers Market in Marin City, cashed a traveler's check Saturday for $45.

But a few minutes later, when another man tried to cash an almost identically signed traveler's check, Ames became suspicious.

He called for Marin sheriff's deputies who arrested James C. Johnson, 31, and a man who identified himself as Rev. Samuel Rover, 32, both of San Francisco.

Johnson also told sheriff's deputies his name was Abdul-lahi or El Hamadallah or Khali-gfa. Rover, too, said he goes by the name Frazier Barnett. Both said they are longshore-men.

A search of their car turned up several guns, a set of burglar tools and more checks. Neither man, said the sheriff's report, had a license to drive.

The car also contained a woman identified as a Mrs. Jones. Rover's mother, and a small child said to belong to Rover.

The sheriff's office said Rover had been arrested twice outside of California on charges of manslaughter. They said he also is wanted in San Francisco for forgery.

When the men were taken to the sheriff's office for booking, they promptly fell asleep. They were booked on charges of possession of deadly weapons, possession or burglary tools, forgery and possession of stolen property. They were scheduled to appear this afternoon in municipal court.

Ames, who lives at 295 Flamingo road, Mill Valley, told sheriff's deputies the two men came into the store about 7:20. He said he became suspicious because the endorsements on the checks, although in different names, were of similar if not identical handwriting.

'WONDER FROG' FROM AFRICA

He lost out to a mediocre frog in the finals, but Kilimanjaro, a frog shipped to Angels Camp from Nairobi, Kenya, wowed officials at the 32nd annual Jumping Frog Jubilee over the weekend. In qualifying rounds, the two-inch long frog leaped an astounding 18 feet 5 inches in three hops to better the world's frog jump record by more than two feet. But a Stockton frog owned by Mike Voitch won the finals with a total of 16 feet, 1 1/2 inches. Kilimanjaro is shown here with Alvin Pecchenino, president of the sponsoring committee. Mark Twain's story of "The Jumping Frog of Calaveras County" was the inspiration for the jumping contest. Twain's humorous story was about the trimming of an Angels Camp gambler by sharpies who loaded his frog with shot. (AP Wirephoto)

Course Helps Cadets Speed Up Reading

Marked improvement in reading abilities of more than 60 cadets at San Rafael Military Academy participating in a six-week course was reported today.

Two classes started studies prescribed by the Reading Laboratory, Inc., of Los Angeles three weeks ago to speed up reading and improve pronunciation, comprehension and remembrance of words read.

With the course half completed, David Lapidus of the Los Angeles firm reported 100 per cent improvement. Reading speeds which averaged 100 to 175 words a minute now have passed the 400-word-a-minute mark, he said, adding that one cadet now reads 1,000 words a minute.

Cadets are learning to read a line or phrase at a glance, he said.

The course will be offered the public at the academy's summer session, he said. Dr. E. Mark Hinton is the superintendent.

Thieves Get 7 Tires At Marin City Station

Sheriff's deputies today were investigating the theft of seven new tires from Smilin' Ed Wood's service station in Marin City yesterday.

Manager James L. Thompson of 2439 Fifth avenue, San Rafael, told deputies a chain holding the tires in a rack was cut. Deputies said the theft occurred sometime between 2 a.m. and 8 a.m.

DON'T NEGLECT YOUR CHILDREN!

Polio isn't licked, yet! In fact, among children not vaccinated, paralytic polio cases actually increased in 1958 over 1957. More one-year-olds were stricken than any other age group.

If your youngsters are still not protected against this feared disease, insist that they start and complete the full series of polio shots NOW.

The 1959 polio season is almost here. The sooner your children are polio-protected, the safer their futures will be. And since polio strikes all ages—be sure to get your shots too. See your doctor or health department NOW.

Dr. Ronald Bridges Believed Drowned; Senator's Brother

PEMBROKE, Maine (AP)—Dr. Ronald Bridges, 53, prominent lay religious leader and brother of Sen. Styles Bridges (R-NH), was feared drowned today in the Pennamquam River.

His small boat was found overturned in the river yesterday a short distance from the family homestead here.

State Police reported Bridges, a doctor of philosophy and theology and religious adviser to the U.S. Information Agency, presumably drowned.

He came to Pembroke a week ago for a fishing vacation from his duties in Washington.

Dr. Bridges is a former president of the Pacific School of Religion at Berkeley, Calif.

1,500 Enjoy San Rafael Schools Music Festival

Fifteen hundred parents and friends were treated to two hours of music by 900 San Rafael school students yesterday, and went away full of praise.

The spring music festival of the city schools, which packed the San Rafael High School gymnasium with participants and listeners, was up to the quality residents have come to expect from Hugo Rinaldi, director music, his staff and students.

Rinaldi, who is taking a sabbatical leave next year to complete his doctorate in music education at Stanford University on a teaching fellowship, was presented with two "hurry back" gifts on behalf of the students in an unprogrammed bit of the afternoon performance.

Despite the fact their ranks were thinned somewhat because of measles and influenza, some 900 students of 4th through 12th grades participated in the orchestras, bands and choirs presented on the program. The entire 900 joined in "Battle Hymn of the Republic" as the closing number.

A highlight was the presentation of music awards and scholarships.

Rosemary von Bima of the high school received the award for outstanding instrumentalist; Judy Currey of the high school, that for exceptional effort in music; Lee Fullerton, of the high school, outstanding music creativity; Jim Watkinson, outstanding freshman in music; Brooke Moore of the high school, most improved player; Richard Rowe, most improved singer; Tom Ingram, outstanding boy vocalist, and Diane Waite, outstanding girl vocalist.

The most coveted award of all, the Max F. Walten award, went to Sheldon Bacchus, high school trombonist, who also received the Max F. Walten $250 scholarship.

Special awards for having been chosen to perform with the All-California High School Symphony Orchestra were presented to May Franklin, Susan McClung, Tom Reynolds, Sheldon Bacchus and Lee Fullerton.

Carol Ann Cook of West End

School was awarded the Charles Meacham violin scholarship; Susan McClees of Davidson School, the Arthur Argiewicz violin scholarship; Shirley Fisher of MacPhail School, the San Rafael Parent-Teacher Council special scholarship; Paul McSweeney of MacPhail, the Oliver Hartzell scholarship; Brooke Moore, the B. J. Simontacchi scholarship; Judy Currey, the Miracle Music Co. clarinet scholarship. School vocal scholarships went to Deedee Haney and Galen Horgan.

School instrumental music scholarships went to Cheryl Lynne and Lynn Howard of the high school; Donna Dewing, Sharon Johnson, Paul Kemper and John McKinnon of Davidson School; Casey Baird of Coleman School, and Kathleen McPherson and Lynette McSweeney of MacPhail School. Sheryl Lynne and Rhea Pendegrass served as announcers. Each of the 1,500 programs distributed to those attending bore a cover hand-colored by a different elementary school pupil.

Proceeds from the program go to build up the scholarship fund which now has given scholarships to more than 100 talented students.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Welcome, Native Sons, We Hope You Like Marin

Again today we welcome to Marin County, the Grand Parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West.

We say "again" because it was just 70 years ago that the Native Sons came here the first time, for their 12th annual Grand Parlor convention. This convention is their 82nd.

It is fitting that you Native Sons, who are dedicated to California history, should come to Marin. For it was here that California's history began, at least for the white man.

Since Sir Francis Drake brought the Golden Hinde into Drake's Bay, Marin has had a key position in the state's history. In addition, residents of our county have an intense interest in our past and in preserving the present for the benefit of the future generations.

Thus, we in Marin were not surprised when you selected one of our number to be your grand president. We, too, have known and appreciated the qualities of Raymond H. Shone; we're glad you did too.

And another thing: a check of our vital statistics column will show that we in Marin do our share, or maybe a little more, in producing prospective members for your organization.

We welcome you and hope you are comfortable.

We hope you will notice we have grown a little since you were here last time; that we have better facilities for your sessions and convenience.

We hope you enjoy our beautiful weather and countryside, our mountains and beaches, our sports facilities and our entertainment spots.

And we hope you will return for another convention here sometime—but please don't wait so long.

Doctors Try To Be Understood

Marin County Medical Society is trying to do something which will improve the understanding between the medics and the general public. As they put it, "We're trying to remove the barrier which seems to be erected between us and the people in general."

That barrier they think, is misunderstanding.

To try to bridge the gap, the medical society has set up a speakers bureau. Local doctors will be available to address clubs, service groups or similar organizations on diseases, their treatment and cure, and a variety of other topics.

This is a step in the right direction. We, too, think there is a great misunderstanding between the doctors and everyone else. One thing we think they should discuss is the economics of medicine, how doctors charge, and why the rates are set that way.

We wish the new speakers bureau success. And we hope that the county's numerous organizations will make good use of the plan.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

HOW TO SOOTHE A GUNMAN

"I have a problem," was the way a maniac greeted a London doctor, while pointing a pistol at her head.

Then he continued, "I've got to kill someone. I'm not joking. I mean it. I've got to kill—you will do!"

The forty-two-year-old doctor, mother of three children, coolly said to the gunman: "Let's talk this over."

Then gently, but firmly, she talked on. She hoped that she would touch some hidden, responsive chord in the threatening desperado.

Her continued talking was not in vain. The strange visitor relaxed slightly. Then he suddenly got up, went out the front door and vanished into the fog.

Incidents like this, while still comparatively few, are increasing too fast for comfort. They reflect the growing irresponsibility of our times.

One effective way to change this trend is to fill the minds and hearts of men with love of God and respect for their fellowman. This is not easy, but every effort you make in this direction will help men to control themselves.

"Seek not revenge, nor be mindful of the injury of thy citizens, thou shalt love thy friend as thyself." (Leviticus 19:19)

Help me, O my Redeemer, to find and nurture the goodness You have implanted in every human being.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

What Do People Lie About Most? Columnist Says It's Height

NEW YORK (AP)—The Oddity Almanac:

What do people lie about most—their age, their weight or their height? My opinion is, based on my experience as a reporter, that people actually lie most about their height. The majority would rather not discuss their real age or weight.

Is this true about you?

Most people have heard about a lynx but they have never seen one. According to "Outdoor California" the average lynx weighs between 12 and 25 pounds.

What was your father's favorite song? "I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen," sung so sweetly and so clearly and so memorably by that voice across the waters, Ireland's tenor — John McCormack, played on the old one-sided record, had the power to stir my father to tears. He liked to hear it all alone in a room without other noise, a problem in a crowded house.

What was your mother's favorite song? I never knew. It is my opinion that mothers hum an individual and nameless tune of their own, and make it up and change it as their life goes along. It is usually a croon of acceptance of life.

There is now available for more than $50,000 a 66-foot, 32-wheel vehicle that can carry up to 300 tons and requires two drivers. The drivers are connected by phone. It is a commercial vehicle, basically, but it has family possibilities. A back-seat-driving wife, for example, might have to dial her husband to predict a corner. And if he saw a curve ahead and forgot to dial her — well, steer today and gone tomorrow!

Almanac editorial: If you must make do-it-yourself space flights, do them in your own back yard. Don't annoy your neighbors. Quiet, please. The peace you disturb may be your own.

Who Will Hire Handicapped?

EDITOR, Independent-Journal

In spite of all the pleas to hire the handicapped, and with the postal department printing on their cancellation of stamps—Hire The Handicapped—just who will hire them?

After my son became handicapped three years ago, due to an airplane accident, his life was saved by a host of doctors, by the prayers and support of many of our good friends, and by thousands of dollars on over 30 operations—and just what does he have in the future?

He is now 22 years old and is capable of handling any number of simple jobs and able to have some responsibilities.

However, after his long struggle to live, and now trying to carry on as normal a life as possible, just where will he turn?

His life expectancy is for 60 more years, but will he have to rely on county welfare or contributions when he is so willing and anxious to work?

Is there some organization hereabout that supports the slogan Hire the Handicapped? I am more than anxious to help other parents who, have this same problem and prove to those afflicted that "Life is worth saving."

Hogging Board's Time Regrettable

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

May I convey through you my sympathy to the reporter who covered the Board of Supervisors hearing last Tuesday. ("2 Planning Matters Hog Board's Time," I-J, May 13.) The discussion was tedious and prolonged and "density" may well be the essence of the problem.

We do feel that the manner in which a new and comparatively untried zoning ordinance—planned residential—is applied in this particular instance, presents certain problems of grave concern to our community.

The "hogging" of the board's time is regrettable and the responsibility must be shared primarily by Supervisor William Fusselman and myself. My reliance on empty generalities and Mr. Fusselman's tendency to digress from the business at hand appeared to contribute substantially to the general chaos. . . .

The 1912 Bull Moose convention's official program featured photographs of Teddy Roosevelt and his running mate, Gov. Hiram Johnson, on the front cover. A couple of million programs had come off the presses when the publisher suddenly discovered he had not secured permission from the copyright owner to use the photos in question. Faced with the possibility of a costly damage suit, he grimly wired the owner: "Considering use of your photographs on covers of three million convention programs. Publicity break of a lifetime! What will you pay for this?"

The owner of the pictures wired back: "Will pay five hundred dollars and not a cent more." The relieved publisher answered, "Your offer ridiculously low, but being pressed for time, we accept."

One thing of which you may be sure: he who laughs last doesn't work for the fellow who told the story!

Undoubtedly, the attempt to move into the welfare picture indicates widening interest in the handling of state monies.

Not All Overtime Parking Police Are Quick To Write That Ticket

We have noted that customers of the ships near our Mill Valley office, have extremely sharp hearing.

Many follow the usual practice of hoping that Office John Imperiale will be patrolling parking meters elsewhere at about that time. But the sound of his chugging three-wheeler is known to all the faithful shoppers. As he approaches, the ladies dash madly out to the street, purses in hand, ready to feed the meter.

John is most gallant when he finds an overtime parker. It takes him a mighty long time to dismount, stroll to the meter and reach for his ticket book. By that time, the offender has usually beat him to the punch.

But once the ticket's made out, it's just too bad.

Remember, this is Mill Valley we're talking about — not other Marin cities.

IF YOU WANT real-for-sure correct time, just give an ear to the Tiburon fire horn at noon.

Chief Dispatcher Howard O. Douglas, a ham radio expert, sounds the raucous monster just as he gets the super-cooper official time from the naval observatory by radio.

WE ONCE NOTED the confusing similarity of phone numbers in similar situations.

The Mill Valley Fire Department information number, for example, is DU 8-4231 while the corresponding number for the Homestead Fire Department DU 8-4132.

Close by, the number at the Alto-Richardson Bay Fire Department is DU 8-0296, while the number assigned to Sid Chapin, chairman of the Alto Fire District Board is DU 8-2096.

Better watch that dialing.

LAST WEEK, we renewed acquaintance with one of S.F.'s pioneer newscasters when we encountered Don Moseley, veteran newscaster on KCBS. He resides in Strawberry.

In World War II days, Don did a hefty job in describing the activities of the military services in the Bay Area. We were able to help Don with reports on Navy doings. He has recently returned from a European tour for CBS.

WILMA YOUNG of Sausalito informed us one day that if you dial "popcorn" on your phone, you'll get the time of day.

Knowing that the usual procedure is to dial RO 7-8900, we checked with Bill Casteron in the Mill Valley telephone office. We found that is indeed correct that dialing such a word will get you the time.

In addition, says Bill, you can dial Rosalie, Rosebud, Postman, Posture, Soprano, Sorghum and a number of other seven letter words and get the time.

Seems that so long as it starts with RO 7, the remaining four letters are immaterial.

Bill warns, however, that if you dial the wrong number, you'll get a long distance number that'll cost you money. So be careful.

Not Much Needed To Make Foreign Ministers Meet A Success

The preliminary scuffling at Geneva does not mean very much. Obviously the conference is not getting off to a very good start, but these procedural skirmishes were to be expected. They will not necessarily do any harm.

The fact that the compromises have been reached promptly and without excessive acrimony is all to the good.

It is important, I think, to keep our expectations in hand. The divisions of purpose and policy between the Soviet Union and the West are so deep and pervasive and meaningful that no single diplomatic meeting is going to usher in an era of goodwill and peace.

It can do no more than arrest an acutely bad trend by reaching one worthwhile agreement which might later lead to another.

HERE IS HOW modest would be my estimate:

If there is one good negative decision, that would be a boon; that is, if the Geneva conference averts a blow-up over West Berlin, it will have been worthwhile.

If the foreign ministers can find better and dependable measures, mutually satisfactory, for guaranteeing the freedom of West Berlin, this will be extracting one great tension from the cold war and will be adding a new element of reasonableness.

If the conference will almost certainly be forthcoming.

MY OWN CONVICTION is that the Soviet Union does not wish or intend to end the cold war, because it is dedicated to a permanent revolution against free societies everywhere in the world. But it does not wish to press the cold war to the point that it would break into a hot war.

If this premise is correct, it defines the first goal of diplomacy on both sides. That goal is to avoid war without the kind of compromise which is equal to appeasement.

This means that the cold war will continue to be pressed by every means short of war and that we will need to bear with the cold war and live with it with stamina and courage and faith in what we believe.

A summit conference does not need to be avoided for fear it will be a failure. It strikes me that tensions may better be kept in control when it is certain that the heads of government will meet periodically to re-examine the possibilities of agreement and to make sure that a kind of war which nobody wants does not come upon us by miscalculation.

What we need to see is that every diplomatic gain will be measured in inches, not in miles.

250 Hurt At Rodeo As Bleacher Falls

MAYETTA, Kan. (UPI)—The top section of a newly-built bleacher caved in at the close of the Mayetta rodeo yesterday, injuring more than 250 persons, 23 of them critically.

The critically hurt, some of whom suffered broken backs, limbs and head injuries, were hospitalized at nearby Topeka and Holton. Another 130 persons received emergency treatment at hospitals. About 100 suffered cuts and bruises but did not go to hospitals.

The accident occurred as a crowd of about 4,000 persons was getting set to leave the annual Mayetta rodeo and Indian fair in this northeast Kansas community of 247 persons. A steel girder cracked and the top section of the C-shaped bleacher collapsed, sending some occupants tumbling 15 feet to the ground. A tin-roofed concession stand beneath the bleachers helped break the fall of others.

Concessionaire Frank Hess, of Topeka, said he was cooking hot dogs over gas stoves when he heard a sharp crack that sounded as though "someone had thrown a pop bottle on the roof."

"Then I heard wood breaking and steel cracking and saw a body fall," Hess said. "Then I ran."

Church Rite Sung To Jazz Beat

BERKELEY (AP)—A centuries-old evening prayer service was followed by jazz renditions yesterday at St. Clement's Episcopal Church.

As the church lights went from dim to bright, choir director Mynard Jones grinned and organist Robert Cates started pounding out ragtime rhythm.

Jones led his 19-voice choir through the Kyrie and Agnus Dei in solid jazz treatment. A basic jazz melody dominated the singing of Nicene Creed. The Sanctus and other hymns were rendered in fox-trot time.

The musical experiment was a performance of a 20th Century Folk Mass, composed by a British vicar, Father Geoffrey Beaumont.

A similar experiment in a Norwalk, Conn., church last month touched off a controversy over the propriety of jazz in church.

A few gray-haired women frowned and stiffened as the Lord's Prayer was sung in Negro spiritual style. But most parishioners appeared merely curious and intent.

Rev. Charles M. Guilbert said he thought the choir showed more "liveliness and zip" than a British recording of the performance but he still didn't consider the composition "good enough for a regular service."

Landmarks Unit Seeks Old Church

The Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society has completed plans for a fund drive to acquire old St. Hilary's Church in Tiburon.

The organization will sponsor a benefit theater party Thursday evening at the Tiburon Playhouse where the movie, "How To Murder a Rich Aunt," will be shown.

The Gothic-styled church, built in 1880, has been offered for sale by the Catholic archbishop since services now are being held in the new and larger St. Hilary's Church not far distant.

The society plans to turn the church into a museum and use the half-acre plot of ground as a park. Mrs. Robert Bastian, temporary chairman, said.

Plans for the drive were made Saturday at a meeting in the home of Thomas Proctor, 10 Crest road, Belvedere. Members voted to add "Belvedere" to the organization's name.

Railroad mileage in the United States totals about 241,000 miles.

Tugboat Crewmen Strike In S.F., Ships Dock On Their Own

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A strike of San Francisco Bay tugboat and barge crewmen entered its third day today, but calm weather has enabled nearly all incoming cargo to dock without incident.

Some 200 members of the Inland Boatmen's Union struck Friday midnight for $25 a month in higher wages. Further wage negotiations were scheduled for tomorrow.

Eight ships, including the luxury liners Orcades and President Wilson, pulled into their berths without the aid of tugs yesterday.

Cargo usually carried up the San Joaquin rivers by barge was being transferred to trucks.

MARIN WOMAN'S HUSBAND

Army Pathologist Finds Fast Way To Tell Cancer

A 29-year-old Army pathologist, Capt. Leroy H. Dart, Jr., and his staff at Walter Reed Army Hospital in Washington, D.C., have come up with a new and speedier method of spotting smear test cancer cells.

Captain Dart is married to the former Mary Beth Smith, daughter of Mrs. Alfred H. Smith of 16 Baywood road, Ross. He is a 1954 graduate of the University of California Medical School.

The new technique using a fluorescent orange dye causes cancer cells to glow brightly under a microscope. Captain Dart, pathology resident at Walter Reed, and M/Sgt. Thomas R. Turner, cytotechnologist, said examination of 5,491 microscopic preparations stained with the dye was done twice as rapidly and just as accurately as the generally used "papanicolaou technique."

They reported their findings last month to a meeting of the International Academy of Pathology in Boston.

In 1934, Dr. George N. Papanicolaou of Cornell University Medical College devised the early cancer detection method of smearing body secretions on glass slides for microscopic study of cells stained with polychrome dyes.

The Walter Reed team used "acridine orange," a fluorochrome dye which unites with the nucleic acids of a cell and shines brightly under ultraviolet light.

Biochemists are now sure that deoxyribonucleic acid generally increases in human cancer cells; they suspect that ribonucleic acid also rises.

Captain Dart pointed out that the smear examination of cells which exfoliate, or detach themselves from the tissues, is used only to detect "suspicious" cases. Final diagnosis is still made by microscopic examination of a biopsy specimen — a piece of tissue taken from the living body.

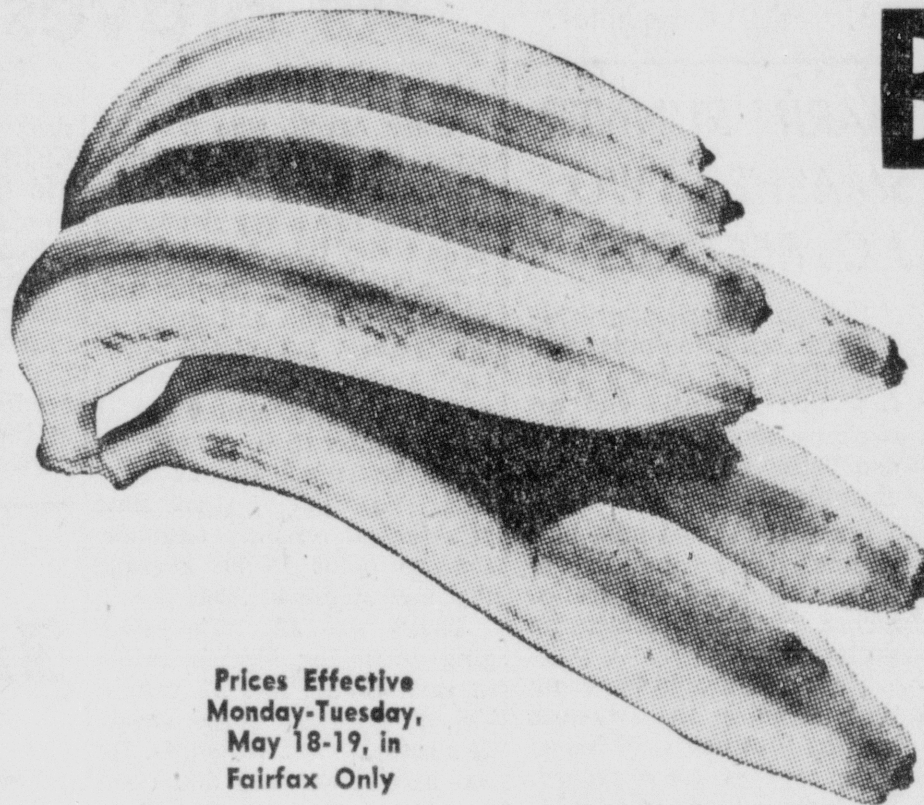

Cancer of the cervix can be detected by exfoliation long before any warning symptoms appear and at a time when it is almost 100 per cent curable. Cervical cancer is second only to breast cancer as a cause of cancer death among women.

Good Time To Meet N.L. Champs, Rigney Declares

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — League leading Milwaukee came to town today and as far as San Francisco Manager Bill Rigney is concerned it's the right time for the crucial three-game National League series.

Giant pitchers are rested. The hitters are hitting. The San Franciscans, 2½ games behind the Braves, collected 10 hits yesterday in defeating Cincinnati 9-1. It was the Giants' fourth victory in their last five games.

Stu Miller, the little guy with slow-slower-slowest pitches, gave up five hits in winning his second game of the season, leaving Rigney's Big Four rested.

Sam Jones, 3-4, was today's starter against lefty Warren Spahn, 4-4. Jack Sanford, 5-3, is the Tuesday night Giant selection and Rigney said one of his lefties, Johnny Antonelli, 5-2, or Mike McCormick, 1-2, will pitch Wednesday.

The Braves came here for the first time last year 1½ games back of the Giants and left ½ game back after winning 2 of 3.

Rigney said his team is in as good a shape as he could ask.

MARIN RUNNER SMASHES TWO J.C. RECORDS

College of Marin star Craig Spilman ran three miles Friday night, picked up two first place medals and set two new records in the Golden Valley Conference track championships. Spilman ran the mile in 4 minutes, 19.3 seconds to break his own conference record of 4:26.5, which he set last year. Then the durable Tar came back, winning the two-mile race in 9 minutes, 53.5 seconds, another new record. The former mark was 10:11. Spilman will run in Fresno Friday in the northern trials for the May 30 State Championships in Modesto.

SAM 21 UNDER PAR Snead Sizzles, Rated Threat In U. S. Open

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP)—A phenomenal 59 followed by a tidy 63. An 11-stroke victory in his own Sam Snead Festival. It may not be too late after all for 'Slammin' Sam to win that elusive Open Golf championship. Snead wound up his competitive tuneup for the open yesterday by shooting the lowest 72-hole total score of his 25-year professional career, 259—21 under par. He left runner-up Mike Souchak of Grossinger, N. Y., wallowing in his wake by 11 strokes and started up talk again that this may finally be the year for Snead, only nine days away from his 47th birthday, to win the open title. It was the 103rd tournament victory for Snead, including all of note except the open, in which he has been runner-up three times.

"Sure, I'd like to win it," he said today, "because then I'd have won them all. But it's only a prestige tournament. I can't seem to get in the mood to win it. The field is not as good as some of the regular PGA tournaments because some of the better players fail to qualify. "The courses are doctored up to make them unusually tough. That's not golf." Snead himself will have to qualify for the open June 11-13 at Mamaroneck, N. Y. He'll try it in Washington June 1. "I'll practice every day this week even though I'm not sure if you can do it with just practice," he said. His festival, which he has won five out of 12 times, was only the third tournament for Snead this year. His third round Saturday was one of the greatest of all time in golf and proved he can still make the game appear easy. It took him only 59 strikes on a par 70, 6,317-yard Course. Yesterday, it was only 63 strokes on the 6,497-yard second course. The PGA competitive record for 18 holes is 60 and Snead is one of seven holders. The PGA record for 72 holes is 257, held by Souchak. The Festival here is not PGA sponsored.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Clif Mayne is the new California state tennis champion. The women's single championship went to Farel Footman, who defeated Donna Brusco 6-2, 6-0. Both are San Franciscans.

Aaron's homer No. 11 came in the fifth inning, broke a 2-2 tie, and set the stage for the Dodgers' fourth straight defeat. The victory enabled the Braves to retain their 2½-game margin over the runner-up San Francisco Giants, who defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 9-1.

Chicago's Cubs crept to within two percentage points of the fourth place Reds, pulling out a split in their double-header with Pittsburgh. Ernie Banks' ninth home run provided them with a 7-6 triumph after Pittsburgh had won the opener 5-4. Rain forced the postponement of the scheduled double-header between the Philadelphia Phils and Cardinals in St. Louis.

Carlson, Kerrigan Golf Champs

Hal Carlson and George Kerrigan each picked up a golf championship trophy with excellent rounds in finals of local tournaments yesterday.

Carlson, 24-year-old salesman from Ross, won the Marin County Amateur Championship at Mill Valley by downing defending champion and medalist Del Taylor of Corte Madera. It was a 5 and 4 decision in the scheduled 36-hole finals.

Kerrigan added the Meadow Club Championship to his list of trophies by beating Chet Patterson, also 5 and 4 in a scheduled 36.

Carlson's victory over the 47-year-old Taylor was a mild surprise. Young Hall, Drake High graduate, played steady golf and had the veteran Taylor seven down at the end of 18 holes.

Taylor had trouble with his woods and couldn't match the younger foe in distance.

Other winners in the Marin Amateur:

Herbert Sponsor Flight — Eldon Davis d. Sidney Whitman, 2 and 1; First Flight — Garth Richards d. Dick Neely, 2 and 1; Second Flight — Jim Fetter d. Carl Rissman, 1 up; Third Flight — John Mullin d. Clay Lilleston, 1 up; Fourth Flight — Francis Coni d. Bob Nadolski, 2 and 1; Fifth Flight — Richard Carver d. Jim Smith, 2 up; Sixth Flight — Dave Sederquist d. Sam Walshin, 4 and 3; Seventh Flight — Lou McDell d. Tom Brown, 4 and 3; Eighth Flight — Paul Brown d. William Rees, 4 and 3; Ninth Flight — Bob Robertson d. Lynn Sumpter, 3 and 2.

At the Meadow Club, meanwhile, Kerrigan, last year's runner-up, snowed under Patterson in the morning round as he toured the par 71 layout in a sizzling 67. He had Patterson seven down at the end of that

RUSS CRACKS WORLD MARK IN DECATHLON

LONDON (UP) — The "world's greatest athlete" once again is a Russian — Vassily Kuznetsov, who has broken American Rafer Johnson's world record in the gruelling decathlon, according to a Tass report on Moscow Radio.

Kuznetsov scored a total of 8,357 points in the 10 event competition to break by 55 points the mark that Johnson set last July 27-28 when he defeated the Russian in a face-to-face meeting at Moscow.

Johnson at that time scored 8,302 points and became a popular sports figure in Russia. In so doing he broke Kuznetsov's previous record of 8,013 points.

The lowest point in the United States is Death Valley, which is 280 feet below sea level.

AMERICAN LOOP

Nat Phenom Clouts Two More Homers

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

It's time American League home run hitting perennials like Mickey Mantle, Roy Sievers, Jackie Jensen and Rocky Colavito started taking Washington's Harmon Killebrew seriously.

The 22-year-old from Payette, Idaho, smashed two more home runs yesterday as the surprising Senators split a double-header with the second place Chicago White Sox. That gave him 14 homers in 34 games, three more than runner-up Colavito's 11.

After warming up with a double and single in Washington's first game 4-2 triumph, Killebrew hammered two circuit blows in the nightcap. The blows narrowed Chicago's 8-1 lead to one run but the White Sox tallied twice in the ninth for a 10-7 win.

Cleveland clung to its slim half-game lead over Chicago by splitting a double-header with Baltimore. The Indians won the second game 8-3 after the Orioles took the opener 8-7 in 11 innings.

In another double-header, Kansas City swamped New York 10-0 after the Yankees had won the opener 3-2 with three runs in the ninth. Boston snapped a five-game losing streak, shelling last place Detroit 10-1.

Pete Ramon hurled a five-hitter against Chicago. The Washington right-hander received ample batting support from Jim Lemon and Reno Bertoia. Each homered to account for three runs in the second inning of the opener.

The loser was Dick Donovan, who had beaten the Senators five straight and 13 times in 16 decisions. Nellie Fox paced a 13-hit Chicago attack with a double and three singles in the second game.

Gus Triandos was the big gun in Baltimore's first game uphill victory over Cleveland. He smashed a three-run homer with two out in the ninth to tie the score at 7-7. In the 11th, with the bases full and two out, Billy Klaus coaxed a walk off relief pitcher Jim Perry to force in the winning run. Gary Bell, backed by an 11-hit attack, won his third game for Cleveland in the nightcap.

Left-hander Bud Daley lost a heart-breaking first game for Kansas City. He had a three-

Bob Grim handcuffed his former Yankee teammates with two singles in the second game. A six-run second inning against Tom Sturdivant was highlighted by Dick Williams' three-run homer.

Less than 24 hours earlier, Kozar and 31,505 other bug-eyed witnesses at Pimlico watched the strapping chestnut streak to a four-length triumph over 10 of the classiest members of his division.

TWO SAILORS DUNKED

Baruna Triumphs In Hearst Event

By ALFRED MATSON

Yesterday the bay, from the Golden Gate Bridge to the Berkeley shoreline was a multicolored, ever changing mosaic, the handicraft of the vast navy of yachtsmen participating in the 26th annual Hearst All Clubs Regatta. Climatically, condition was excellent, albeit the wind, by mid-afternoon, had increased to a point that caused many a skipper to cast apprehensive eyes aloft to the straining sails and taut rigging.

During the races two men "jumped ship" the hard way; fortunately their dunkings were cold but not too long of duration. Aboard James Michael's Baruna, preparations were underway to set the spinaker for the run to the finish line, a sudden knockdown and attendant loss of balance for one young Steve Matson and he was overboard. Luckily he grabbed a life line stanchion and, despite the nine-knot speed of the yacht, managed to hang on. In moments he was back on deck, minus a couple of clothes items, torn off by the water's drag, but otherwise quite okay.

MAN OVERBOARD

The other mishap occurred on the Bear class boat Bare Hair, owned by James Clark of Belvedere, a member of the San Francisco Yacht Club. On the spinnaker run past the Presidio, a competitor luffed them up with the result they hit the Anita Rock Buoy. In the ensuing confusion, the mainsail jibed and one of the crew, Dennis Mahar of Sausalito, was several minutes before the boat could be maneuvered alongside and a thoroughly chilled Dennis be hauled aboard.

Winners among the Marin sailing fraternity were numerous. The aforesaid James Michael of Belvedere sailed a perfect race to bring the big Baruna home winner of Tim Moseley's trim Orient by a scant 27-second margin on corrected time.

GALS TRIUMPH

A momentous victory was achieved in the 210 Class by the captain and crew of the Gay Blade. Momentous, in this instance, might be a bit of overemphasis. The captain and crew were all on the distaff side, or, if preferred, ladies. There were five entries and the gals led the pack from start to finish to win by a convincing margin. Another 210, the Top Banana, was scheduled to race, also with a feminine crew, but unforeseen circumstances forced their withdrawal. The sailing mistress of the Gay Blade was Ricki Treacy, aided and abetted by Bettie and Sue Potter, plus another sailoress, impressed at the last moment and, unfortunately, her name was not divulged.

CRUISER RACE

The cruiser "over the bottom" race on Saturday saw one fledgling, with but one race under his belt, come through the over-all winner. One John Copeland of the Berkeley Yacht Club and his "Adequate" wound up possessor of the top trophy.

Other results reveal that Max Niesche's Almax, St. Francis Y. C., was the winner in Class A, with M. H. Johnson's Eunice III of the Sausalito Cruising Club taking a close second ahead of the Barlu, owned by B. Carrick of the Sacramento Y. C. In Class "B" the Sausalito Cruising Club's C. Sorensen brought his trim Miss Lorraine into the winner's circle by a convincing margin.

what's in the "inner mind"?

The Answer: Buying Ideas!

ALL GOODS and services are sold in the mind before they are sold over the counter. Our inner minds are LOADED with buying ideas, call them needs or desires if you will, just waiting to be triggered into action by the right stimulus. The chief stimulus, in Marin, is advertising in the Independent-Journal, the newspaper that is paid for, wanted, and delivered daily to 5 out of 7 Marin homes. It's the place where Marinites look for the goods and services to fill their needs and turn dreams into realities. That's why I-J advertising gets such amazing results, whether you run a full page in color or a little classified ad!

NATIVE SONS OPEN CONVENTION IN SAN RAFAEL

Raymond H. Shone of San Rafael, Grand President of the Native Sons of the Golden West, greets a predecessor as the NSGW opens its 82nd Grand Parlor Convention at the Bermuda Palms Hotel in San Rafael. With Shone is David Stuart of San Bernardino, member of Arrowhead

Parlor 110, NSGW, and grand president in 1955. The convention, which opened yesterday and runs through Thursday, is the organization's first statewide gathering in San Rafael in 70 years. (All photos on this page by I-J photographer Dick Steinheimer)

ELECTIONEERING — Members of Fruitvale Parlor 252, NSGW, stage a demonstration for George H. Ewart of Fruitvale for the post of grand third vice president, as last night's Native Sons parade through San Rafael gets under way.

SAN FRANCISCO ENTRY — San Francisco's Castro Parlor, NSGW, was represented in last night's parade by this marching band. The unit is shown passing the corner of Fourth and A streets.

MARINITE IN PARADE — George W. Hall, Marin's former county assessor, wears his "trademark"—the false mustache which identified Hall at public appearances over three decades—as he joins the NSGW parade, falling in alongside an ancient vehicle which advertised an NSGW barbecue at Nicasio.

RECALL SAN RAFAEL MEET—George G. Metaxas, administrative assistant to the NSGW's grand president, points to a picture of the organization's convention 70 years ago—the last previous gathering in San Rafael. Looking on is Frank S. Christy, grand marshal, of Sunset Parlor 26, Sacramento. Old convention pictures are displayed at the Bermuda Palms.

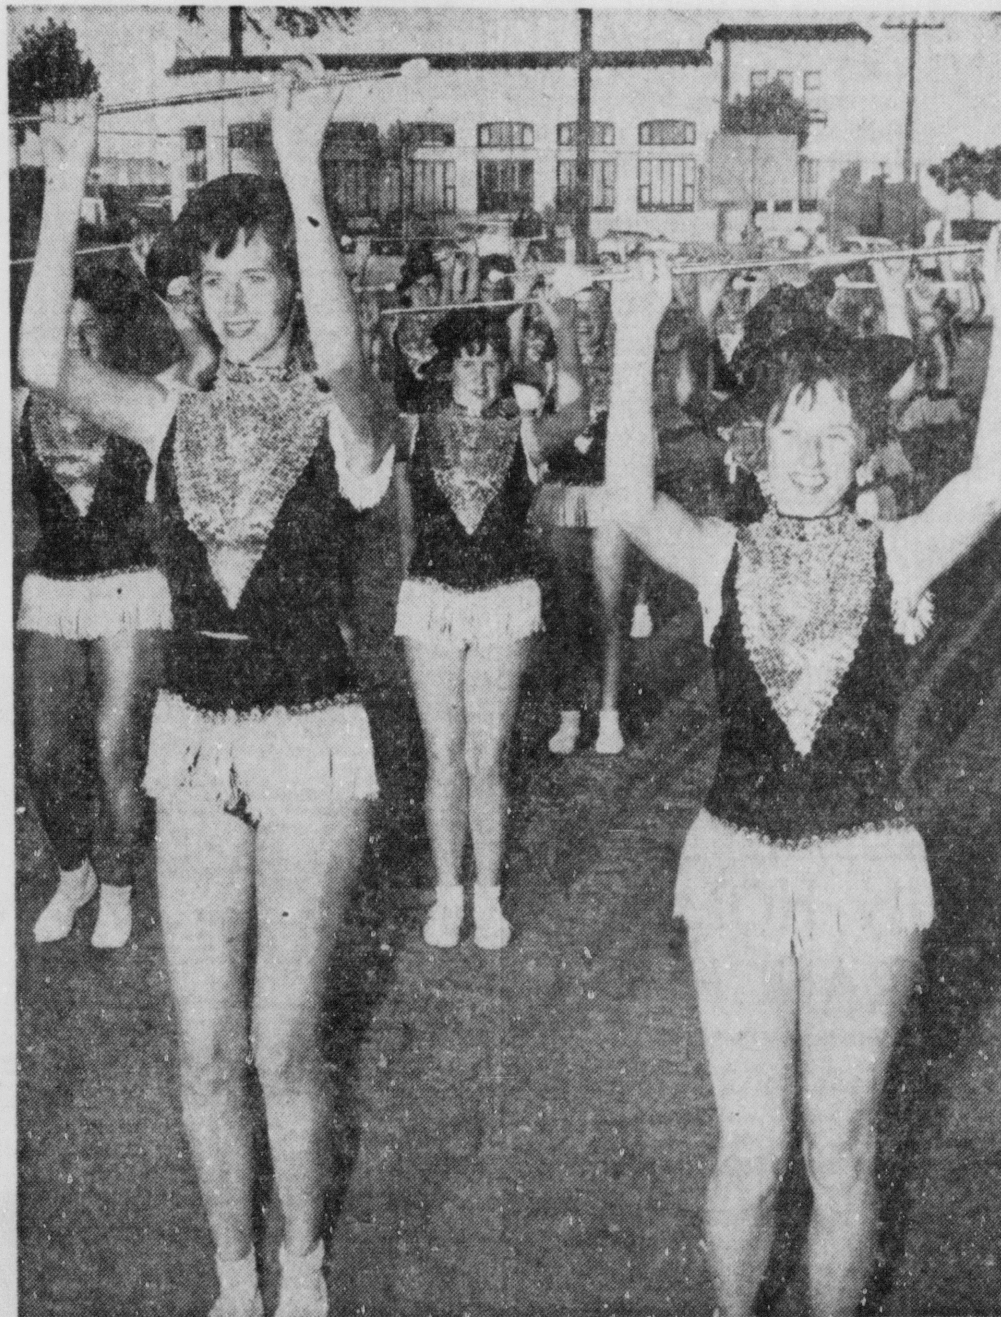

REGISTRATION — Frank L. Laurence, right, of Fairfax Parlor 307, NSGW, hands out convention materials to delegates from Eden Parlor 113 of Hayward. Others shown are, from left, Mr. and Mrs. George La Fleur, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Souza and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Perez. Laurence is reservations and grand ball chairman for the convention.

LITTLE INJUNS — Garbed as the original native sons, Mark Mazza, 2, and Marilyn Mazza, 4, pose with their grandmother, Mrs. Walter Mazza of San Rafael, before the start of last night's gala Native Sons of the Golden West parade through downtown San Rafael.

NAPA GROUP STRUTS — "The Pepperettes," girls majorette team, strut their stuff near the E Street School, as they wait to take their place in the parade which opened the NSGW convention last night.

AIRMEN LEAD PARADE — A color guard from Hamilton Air Force Base led the way as Native Sons' units paraded through San Rafael last night in an opening event of the organization's 82nd Grand Parlor Convention, first in San Rafael in 70 years.

ANNUAL SPRING CRUISE BALL — Jolly Rogers Chapter of the Children's Home Society will hold a ball Saturday night at Ricky's Rancho Rafael and this year the good ship Jolly Rogers will sail to

IT'LL BE JOLLY

Spring Cruise Ball Planned At Ignacio

Excitement and anticipation are in the wind as members and guests of the Jolly Rogers Chapter of the Children's Home Society look forward to the annual Spring Cruise Ball to be held at Ricky's Rancho Rafael Saturday night.

This year the good ship Jolly Rogers will sail to Merrie Old England. All "passengers, seamen and buccaneers" will walk the plank over simulated ocean when they arrive at Ricky's for an evening of activities.

Sailing time is 6:30 p. m. with cocktails and a poolside fashion show of swimwear. Modeling swimsuits in the latest fashions, which will be flown from Los Angeles especially for this show, will be the Mesdames Kenneth Bernd, Eric Koolgaard, Robert Mattos, Ralph Nattress, Luciano Sabella and Miss Maureen Kessler.

A banquet style dinner will follow the fashion show. There will be dancing. Midnight swimming will complete the entertainment.

Assisting in arrangements with Ricky's is Mrs. John Bellamy Jr., fashion coordinator.

Mrs. James Zierlof, chairman of the cruise and Mrs. Walter Derr Jr., in charge of decorations, have announced the decorations in the old English motif.

Old English lanterns will be placed by the entrance to guide guests across the plank.

Crossed halberds will be placed on the walls with brilliantly colored shields, each denoting the ruling families. The British flag—courtesy of the British Consulate's office in San Francisco—will be hung over the fireplace and banked with red roses.

The old era will be symbolized by a pirates treasure chest overflowing with jewels and riches.

Special awards will include a weekend for two at Lake Tahoe; weekends for two at Monterey and Santa Rosa, and luggage.

The Children's Home Society is the only statewide agency licensed by the State of California to place children for adoption.

One of the oldest and largest privately supported agencies in the country which devotes its services exclusively to the promotion of sound adoptions, the society is incorporated under California law as a non-profit organization.

A fully accredited member of the Child Welfare League of America, the society serves children of all races and faiths. It is a member of the United Crusade.

Marinita Parlor Native Daughters Honor Mothers

Mrs. John Sutter, president of Marinita Parlor 198, Native Daughters of the Golden West, was crowned Mother of the Night at the parlor's recent meeting honoring their mothers. Her title was a takeoff on Queen for a Day and her royal bouquet consisted of wilted lilies.

Martha Hayne And Lee Talbot Exchange Vows At St. Helena

Martha Walcott Hayne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Bourn Hayne of Kent Woodlands, and Lee Merriam Talbot of Berkeley exchanged "I dos" and rings before 350 guests at the bride's family's country estate at St. Helena Saturday afternoon.

The ceremony was held in the lower terrace of the historic Madrone home.

Rev. John L. Bogart of Grace Episcopal Church, St. Helena officiated. The altar, covered with Oriental silk brocade hangings, featured a natural tree root cross, which was picked by the bride's late grandfather, William Alston Hayne, in Southern California. The flowers were white carnations and stock.

The new Mrs. Talbot was escorted to the altar by her father. Her ivory satin gown was styled with Alecon lace embroidery over a sweetheart neckline and at the waistline, forming a V in the back. It had long satin sleeves pointed at the fingers and a bell shaped skirt ending in a sweep train.

HEIRLOOM ROSEPOINT — She wore an ivory satin half cap appliqued with heirloom Rosepoint lace over a circular fingertip veil. Her bouquet contained white carnations, stephanotis, butterfly orchids, and baby ivy.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Michael S. Simpson, of Hood, Calif., the bride's sister. Miss Elizabeth S. Cushman of New York City and South Shaftsbury, Vt. was maid of honor and Miss Zanaida Talbot, the groom's sister, was bridesmaid. Miss Cushman was a classmate of the bride's at Vassar College.

Miss Cushman and Miss Talbot wore gowns of moss green taffeta and velvet, fashioned with high scoop necklines and three-quarter length sleeves, fitted bodice and matching velvet sash. The skirts were straight in front with flares at the sides and back. Mrs. Simpson's dress was similar, but of a darker shade. Their bandeaus of matching taffeta had short veils. The attendants' bouquets were of garden flowers.

BEST MAN

Standing up with the groom was George Chaffin, Oroville rancher and a Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity brother at the University of California. Two other fraternity brothers, Dr. Murray Gardner of Santa Rosa and Curtis M. Karplus, showed guests to their places, along with Warren Hayne Jr. and Michael S. Simpson.

Mrs. Hayne chose a silver grey silk organza shirtmaker dress with wide pleats for the wedding. It had three-quarter length sleeves and a soft round neckline. Mrs. Murrell W. Talbot of Berkeley, the groom's mother, was attired in a soft blue and green print silk ensemble with a sheath skirt.

Each wore a pair of white Amazon lilies tied with moss green ribbons.

The guest book was carried by Peggy Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. B. Hill of Kentfield. Among the out-of-town signers were the bride's great aunt and uncle, Dr. and Mrs. Richard S. Eustis of Hancock, N.H. Mr. Hill and their other son, Richard S. Eustis Jr. of Seattle, Wash. were also present with their wives.

Guests crossed the terrace, set in a grove of eucalyptus and madrone trees, to the bridal table.

Guests toasted the bride and groom with champagne and enjoyed a buffet supper. Music was furnished by violinist Edward Harkness and his group.

Martha and Lee left for a brief wedding trip to an undisclosed destination. The bride changed to a royal blue silk tweed suit with matching headband. Her shoes and bag were royal blue and her gloves white.

They will leave New York City next month for Kenya, where they will live for 15 months. The bridegroom has a Foreign Field Research Award from the National Academy of Science, National Research Council.

Dr. Hildebrand To Address 3R Parents

Dr. Joel Hildebrand, professor emeritus of chemistry at University of California and an outspoken critic of California's school education, will be guest speaker at a parents' banquet of the 3R School at Bermuda Palms, the evening of May 23.

Dr. Hildebrand, former president of the American Chemical Society, is a member of the Citizens Advisory Commission of the state legislature's joint interim committee on the public education system. In this capacity he has been attending hearings on public education throughout the state since August, 1958.

Said Dr. Tom Groody, science instructor at the 3R School and chairman of the banquet, "We invited Dr. Hildebrand to be our speaker because he, as much as any one we know, advocates the philosophy of fundamentals with emphasis on mastery of subject matter rather than on 'life adjustment.'"

$2,400 Asked For Injury To Boy

A 5-year-old boy from Alameda County, whose father says a heavy gate fell on him and broke his leg at Nick's Cove last August, is seeking $2,400 from the county in Marin Superior Court.

Edwin Utvik filed the claim against the county in behalf of his boy, Charles. Utvik says the family was at Nick's Cove on Aug. 13, 1958. The boy was pinned under the gate and suffered a broken leg.

Utvik says a compromise settlement has been reached for $2,400 and asks the court to approve that amount.

Campaign To Honor Shark Victim Urged

Mrs. B. K. Wolfe of 157 Madera, Larkspur, announced today she is promoting a campaign to honor the bravery of 18-year-old Albert Carl Kogler of San Francisco, who was killed by a shark at Baker's Beach.

Mrs. Wolfe says the girl who tried to save him, Shirley O'Neill, 18, has received many honors for her bravery, but young Kogler, son of Corte Madera Councilman Albert E. Kogler, "was just as brave if not more so by telling the girl to get away while he himself was under attack."

"I wish someone would start a campaign for a scholarship in his honor or to help the recreation department of Larkspur and Corte Madera," said Mrs. Wolfe. She said she does not know the Kogler family or the O'Neill family, but was struck by the bravery of the two young people.

Three children who passed the bicycle handling tests with 100 per cent were Trudy Hamm, Joseph Murphy and Constance Goddard.

Teen-Age Slumber Party Survivor Surveys Women With Bleary Eyes

Did you ever give a slumber party for teen-age girls? We did, last night. I'll never be the same again. Girls don't slumber at slumber parties. Neither do the chaperones. Pardon my yawning. I'm a weary man today.

This started out to be a small affair. But parties don't stay small at our place. Eventually we even had our house packed full. Most of the girls were in sleeping bags, on air mattresses. They were comfortable. They should have slept. Instead they communicated.

They squealed. Can any sound match the squeal of a gang of 14 and 15-year-old girls at night? They giggled, continuously. They sang, they chatted. They seemed interested in one thing. Boys. Big boys and little boys. Fat boys and thin boys. Athletic boys and studious boys. Nice boys and not so nice boys. They reminisced. They talked about how Joe behaved with Helen at the prom. They argued over the sewing in the dress Suzy wore. They exchanged these vital memories, by the hour. Of course we tried to promote slumber.

Periodically Mrs. Barbour made the rounds shushing and hushing. Exiled in my room I ruminated. Young females are fantastic, aren't they, men?

I don't know when they finally quieted down. They were giggling when I dropped off. But they were up for breakfast. The whole charming gang of them, fresh as daisies. I'm bleary-eyed and weebegone. I came to work to get some rest. Who invented slumber parties anyway?

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "We've one child, a teen-age girl. We can't understand her. She lives in an odd world of weird music, unintelligible slang, dates, gossip, parties and fun. She doesn't do anything actually wrong. She gets good grades at school. But she worries us. Are other teen-age girls zany too?"

Mrs. N.A.I.

(A) Yes, nearly all of them are. Her world seems odd to you, but it is normal to her. We were just as unintelligible to our parents. Talk with the mothers and fathers of her girl friends. They'll help you understand.

ALMANAC

Today is Monday, May 18, the 138th day of the year, with 227 more days in 1959.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The morning stars are Mercury, Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening stars are Mars and Venus.

On this date in history:

In 1852, Massachusetts became the first state in the Union to make school attendance compulsory for children between the ages of 8 and 14 years.

In 1860, Abraham Lincoln was nominated for president by the Republicans meeting in Chicago at a temporary convention hall known as the "Wigwam."

In 1892, Ezio Pinza, opera singer and star of "South Pacific," was born in Rome.

In 1933, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed into law the Tennessee Valley Authority Act to develop and curb the waters of the Tennessee River, including the development and sale of electric power by the government.

In 1953, the American avia-trix, Jacqueline Cochran, became the first woman to fly faster than the speed of sound. She piloted a Sabrejet fighter at an average speed of 652 miles per hour.

SOME CHANGE — Farrington L. Jones (left), San Anselmo realty broker and son of Dr. William Farrington Jones, visited San Rafael

In 1906, Dr. Jones Brought Marin Its First X-Ray: It Glowed, Crackled

In 1906, Dr. William Farrington Jones, San Rafael physician and one of the founders of San Rafael General Hospital, had a new-fangled machine installed in his office at Fourth and C streets. It was an X-ray, the first in Marin County, spanning new and modern.

Dr. Jones' colleagues in the Marin County Medical Society were properly impressed, and so, no doubt, were his patients. The latter were awed not only by the fact that this newest tool of medical science could look clear through a man, but by its antics while it did so. It crackled, smelled and glowed a ghostly green.

YOUTH IMPRESSED

Among those impressed by the doctor's new apparatus was his teen-age son, Farrington L. Jones, now a San Anselmo realty broker.

The other day Jones paid a visit to the hospital his father helped found in 1905 and was again impressed by an X-ray machine.

He looked over the sleek, modern apparatus recently installed at the hospital and contrasted it with the early machine of which his father was so proud more than 50 years ago.

HOW IT WORKED

Jones describes the actions of his father's 1906 model this way:

"The two large glass disks in the cabinet were rotated by hand (later by electric motor) to create a charge of static electricity. You could hear crackling noises and smell ozone. Then, when enough charge was built up, a switch threw the current into a big glass tube a few feet away from the cabinet. The tube glowed green as the picture was taken."

Actually, as the doctor's son recalls it, the 1906 model could be used only for fluoroscopic examinations, a process with which the physician allows the x-ray beam to pass through the subject's body and cast an image on a screen. This process was used mainly to view fractures — in those days, more of them from horse-and-buggy mishaps than automobile accidents.

PORTABLE X-RAYS

Later Dr. Jones acquired a portable x-ray which he could use in his office, at the hospital, or in patients' homes. He owned several machines during his years of practice.

While looking over the new x-ray at San Rafael General Hospital, Jones observed that whereas his pioneering father's earliest model made awesome sounds, sights and smells, nowadays the subject sees and smells nothing, and hears only the soft whirring of the electric motors. A sort of super-camera, the modern x-ray allows both fluoroscopy and radiography, or filming, of all parts of the body, to help the physician make his diagnosis.

The 1906 model probably cost around $250. The recently installed x-ray at San Rafael General cost $30,000 and was partly financed for the hospital by the William Babcock Memorial Endowment.

Mosk Pledges Drive On Business Fraud

SACRAMENTO (P) — Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk today announced his office will help crack down on business frauds.

He said Howard Jewel, his deputy, will work with the consumer counsel in the governor's office. The council was authorized in a bill signed recently by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

"We will take appropriate action against that small percentage of unfair competitors who resort to false and misleading advertising and other fraudulent practices," Mosk said.

Sun Spots Give Police Radios A Bad Time

By DIANA BRUCE

Twenty years ago San Anselmo police got their classic example of "sun spot" radio reception.

Over the police radio came an urgent message to Car 12 to go to Scenic avenue and check a bonfire in the street.

A police officer went the entire length of tortuous Scenic avenue and radioed back in great perplexity that he couldn't find any bonfire.

By that time the duty officer at the police station had figured out the message was another example of freak reception, amusing except for when you go on a wild goose chase. The Scenic avenue with the bonfire was in some far-away city.

Mansfield Lewis, head of the county communications system, says the "sun spots" act up every 10 years. Last year was supposed to be a peak year (one reason the International Geophysical Year was scheduled then) "but this year is worse," Lewis said.

The sun spots, actually huge hydrogen explosions, affect the ionization of radio waves and cause odd reflections.

Ordinarily Marin police radios pick up their frequency at a maximum distance of 100 miles from a Mt. Tamalpais transmitter.

But when they get the slurred accents of a Southerner saying "you tell that nigger to keep his mule out of the street," it's evident the message didn't originate in Marin County.

The county sheriff's office, San Anselmo, Mill Valley, Sausalito and Fairfax police departments radios, operate on 39.82 megacycles. Outside their usual range are 270 other communities across the country that operate on the same frequency. The Marin radios lately have been picking up the police messages of spots in Florida, on the East Coast and in Montana.

Roving police cars and some Marin fire stations send messages over 39.74 megacycles. They haven't been getting much interference.

The fire departments of Novato, Kentfield and Alto use 46.50 megacycles and recently have been picking up messages from Brooklyn and Michigan.

The sun spots cause changes in the ionosphere, a region of electrically charged air beginning about 25 miles above the surface of the earth by which radio waves are transmitted great distances.

"No one knows exactly what changes take place," said Edwin Olmstead, county radio technician.

Although the International Geophysical Year was to provide new data and new theories, little has been reported in technical journals so far, Lewis said.

Art-Garden Market Day Events Set

A special invitation was issued today to Marin County businessmen to have lunch Wednesday at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross.

A "silver dollar lunch" will be a feature Market Day, annual fund-raising event sponsored by the center's Northgate Group.

Mrs. Arthur W. Feidman, San Rafael, church chairman, said a "hearty menu was planned, with men especially in mind." One feature will be hand-freezer ice cream.

Lunch will be served starting at 11 a.m. when other Market Day activities also are scheduled to begin. A dozen booths will dispense merchandise and fresh foods of various sorts, with proceeds going to development of the non-profit center.

Ticket Chairman

Bonnie Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark of 34 Mira Aliotes avenue, San Rafael, is ticket chairman for the variety show and dance to be given by the Merritt Hospital School of Nursing in Oakland on June 13 in Oakland's Veterans Memorial Building, 200 Grand avenue.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Systematic Vandalism

PHILADELPHIA (P) — Nine boys, four of them brothers, have been accused of vandalizing four schools in four days. They said they took yesterday off "because we don't do anything wrong on Sunday."

The damage was done, at the rate of one school a day, between Thursday, May 7, and last Monday. The havoc at one school was so bad classes were canceled the following day.

The boys were arrested at their homes yesterday and charged with burglary, larceny and receiving stolen goods. Police said they emptied fire extinguishers, ransacked desks, and stole equipment. They are 10 to 13 years old.

Most of the stolen equipment, police said, was found at their homes.

Race Riots In London

LONDON (P) — Special police guards patrolled Notting Hill, London's little Harlem, today to stave off a renewal of race rioting.

Tension rose in the slum area after the murder Saturday night of a Negro by a gang of white teen-agers after they taunted him with "Jim Crow" jibes.

The murdered man was tall, bespectacled Kelso Cochrane, 32, a carpenter who was saving for a June wedding. He was walking home alone when the attack occurred.

Actor Shows His Art

HOLLYWOOD (P) — Actor Vincent Price, a noted art collector, played host to a full house of art lovers at his own home yesterday—charging $1 a head.

Price showed his collection of famous paintings and art objects to the public as a way of raising money for purchasing new art pieces for the Mary and Vincent Price Art Gallery at East Los Angeles Junior College founded in 1951.

'Glowing Rose' Grown

LONDON (P) — Sam McGredy, Britain's leading rose hybridist, said today he had produced a rose that glows.

McGredy said the new rose was almost fluorescent and could be seen a quarter of a mile away. He said it had taken him 5,000 seedlings and $14,000 to produce the orange rose, which he named "Orangeade."

Immigration Bill Slated

WASHINGTON (P) — Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) has proposed a new immigration formula which would treat all foreign countries alike and admit 250,000 immigrants annually to the United States. Only about 150,000 may enter now.

Kennedy's bill, which was offered for consideration at Senate hearings starting Wednesday, would repeal the national origin quota system that has been blamed for the alleged discrimination against eastern and southern European nations under present laws.

Job Outlook 'Favorable'

WASHINGTON (P) — Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell says the job outlook for next month's college graduates is "generally favorable."

Mitchell made his appraisal in an open letter yesterday to 400,000 students who will receive bachelor degrees and 85,000 others in line for advanced degrees at campus commencement exercises. He estimated an average starting salary of $425 for holders of bachelor degrees.

Singing Couple Share Honors

George Franzman of San Rafael and his wife, Suzanne, both seniors at the University of California at Santa Barbara, shared honors at the campus Spring Sing attended by 5,000 persons.

Franzman was soloist with a Sigma Alpha Epsilon quartet which won first prize for its rendition of the spiritual "Sit Down Servant." His wife was a member of a Chi Omega chorus which took first prize singing a group of French songs. Sigma Alpha Epsilon also won the novelty group prize and combined with girls of Pi Beta Phi, won the sweepstakes.

Assn. For Retarded

The Marin Assn. for Retarded Children will meet at 8 p.m. today in Wade Thomas School, San Anselmo.

International Language

LONDON (P) — Manuel Delgado can speak no English; his wife can speak no Spanish. The children speak both, but hardly ever do.

The family went off to a congress of the British Esperanto Assn. today chattering happily in that international language—the only tongue they have in common.

'Harassment' Charged

WASHINGTON (P) — A Republican senator has accused Democrats of waging a political campaign of "harassment" against Commerce Secretary Lewis L. Strauss and other appointees of President Eisenhower.

Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-S.D.) charged yesterday that the Senate Democratic leadership had given its "full blessing" to such a campaign in an effort "to embarrass" presidential nominees.

Mundt predicted that Ogden A. Reid, former president and editor of the New York Herald Tribune, would receive "the same treatment" on his nomination to be U.S. ambassador to Israel.

The Senate commerce committee is scheduled to vote tomorrow on the Strauss nomination. Many observers have given Strauss only slightly better than a 50-50 chance of winning Senate confirmation.

Lady Astor Nearly 80

LONDON (P) — Lady Astor, England's American-born woman politician, will be 80 years old tomorrow, but she'll cut no cake that shows up with 80 candles.

"I refuse to admit I am more than 52," the lady said, "even if that does make my sons illegitimate."

5 Candidates Competing For 2 Jobs On Fairfax School Board Tomorrow

Five candidates are competing for two places on the Fairfax School District board in tomorrow's election.

Only one is an incumbent, Mrs. Fay L. Jensen, who seeks another three-year term on the board. Richard Sloan, whose term also expires this year, is not seeking re-election.

Candidates, besides Mrs. Jensen, are Harland B. Hennessy, Laurence G. Hermann, Raymond S. St. Louis and Victor Watson.

The Fairfax School District Board has voted to dissolve next year its confederation with San Anselmo and Kentfield districts, which now share the same administrative staff. The board as constituted at tomorrow's election will be faced with a decision as to whether to go it alone or merge with some other district after the confederation ends.

Here are the candidates:

Harland B. Hennessy, 54, of 11 Gary way, is director of the accounting division of the Military Sea Transport Service, Pacific Area. He had previously held accounting and financial and engineering management posts in both private industry and Army and Navy. During World War II, he was fiscal officer of the Naval Gun Factory in Washington, D.C.

Hennessy was born in Pomona and completed his education at San Jose State College and University of California. He is a member of Naval Lodge 4, Free and Accepted Masons, Eureka Naval Chapter 4, Royal Arch Masons; Washington Commandery 1, Knights Templar, and Almas Temple of the Mystic Shrine, all of Washington, D.C., and formerly was vice president of St. John's Mite, a Masonic philanthropic effort. He has been active in University of California alumni affairs.

Hennessy and his wife, Barbara, have three daughters, two of whom are still at home.

Laurence G. Hermann, 31, of 24 Meadow way, is building appraiser and fire and safety engineer for General Insurance Co. of America in San Francisco.

Hermann served in the Navy in 1946 to '48. He was born in Olympia, Wash., and holds an A.B. degree from College of Puget Sound.

He and his wife, Helen, have two daughters at home.

Fay L. Jensen, 45, of 4 Meadow way is the incumbent chairman of the Fairfax board. Now devoting her time to her home and children, she is a former medical laboratory technician.

Mrs. Jensen was born in Conrad, Mont., and educated in the schools there.

She is a member of the choir and Couplers Club of Fairfax Community Church, and of the Deer Park and Sir Francis Drake Parent-Teacher Assn. She is also secretary of Fairfax Youth Activities Council.

Her husband is Everett J. Jensen, a U.S. Forest Service employee. They have three sons and a daughter at home.

Raymond S. St. Louis, 31, of 137 Wood lane is assistant manager of the Associated Oil Station at 98 Sir Francis Drake boulevard in San Anselmo.

He served with the 11th Airborne Division in Japan in World War II as an enlisted man. He is a native of San Francisco and was educated in San Francisco public schools.

St. Louis and his wife, Carol, have three sons and two daughters ranging in age from four months to 6 years.

VICTOR WATSON

ters ranging in age from four months to 6 years.

Victor S. Watson, 40, of 93 Cascade drive is a watchmaker at Royce Department Store in San Rafael.

Watson is past commander of San Anselmo Post 179, American Legion, and was Scoutmaster for three years of Troop 5. He served as a second lieutenant in the Army Air Forces in the European theater during World War II, receiving three battle stars. He is now a member of the 9364th Air Reserve Squadron.

He was born in Fairfield and grew up and attended schools in Woodland, Yolo County. He and his wife, Vera, have two daughters and a son at home.

Ostaggi To Speak To Realty Board

Today's loan situation will be discussed by Eugene Ostaggi, executive vice president of the Ross Valley Savings and Loan Assn., at tomorrow's 8 a.m. meeting of the Marin County Real Estate Board, announced breakfast chairman Marvin Watson.

The board will hold a past presidents' dinner May 28 at the Meadow Club in Fairfax. Vera Rivers is in charge of the program.

Strawberry Point School Fete Set

Japanese process of textile design printing, mosaic work and a miniature model railroad will highlight the Strawberry Point School Parent-Teacher Assn.-sponsored festival Saturday.

Many unusual hobbies also will be displayed, said Mrs. Anshell Nelson, P-TA spokesman.

Boths, games and shows also are on the daylong entertainment program for the public, she added.

Concert Set For Friday At Tam High

The annual Tamalpais High School spring concert will be presented Friday at 8 p.m. in Ruby Scott Auditorium at the school.

The evening of music will present the school orchestra, directed by Mabel Pittenger, the choir, under direction of Robert Greenwood and the girls' glee club and soloists.

Soloists will be Linda Salvberg, cellist from Mill Valley; Claudia Colburn, soprano of Corte Madera; Beverly Barnes and Noel Beard, violinists from Marin City; Loren Donaldson, oboist of Sausalito, and William Silva, flutist from Marin City.

There will be a small admission charge which is devoted to the school's music scholarship fund.

In College Play

Camillo M. (Benny) Mello, former San Rafael and Woodacre resident and now a graduate student at San Francisco State College, is in the cast of "Electra," a production to be given May 20-22 in the school's Little Theater. Mello also is the new recording secretary of the Players Club.
